

—○ 2015 Carlos Perez-Mesa, MD, Lectureship in Medical Humanities

“From Picasso to the Three Stooges: A Brief History of Radiology in the Arts”

Tuesday, April 7, 2015, 7 p.m.

Memorial Union Stotler Lounge

Presented by Brett Prywitch, MD

Radiologist at Dugan Radiology Associates, Breese, Illinois

Carlos Perez-Mesa, MD, held many appointments at the MU School of Medicine, Ellis Fischel Cancer Center, and the Cancer Research center of Columbia. He was a respected cancer researcher, clinician, and teacher. He also was a loving husband and father who was passionate about the arts and humanities.

A RECEPTION WILL FOLLOW THE LECTURE.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT www.ethics.missouri.edu

An endowed Carlos Perez-Mesa, MD, Lectureship in Medical Humanities has been established at MU in his honor to further discussions that focus on the art and ethics of medicine

Center for Health Ethics
Health Management and Informatics
University of Missouri